Words from your Lay Director

Thanks for the prayers!!!
I definitely was graciously over medicated with your prayers and I truly do thank you all. I am feeling much, much better. I knew the community gathering in Lockney would be a success without my presence. My heart was sad to a point because I so looked forward to being back in my childhood church home of many years ago. The First Methodist Church in Lockney was then, is now, and always will be a warm, safe, inviting haven for those who know or want to know our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Thanks go out to the church congregation, everyone who provided food, Steven and the praise team, and Roger Foote. My friend Debbie Crosby (who filled in for me) said the gathering was awesome. Also thank you Tim Hardage for sharing your 4th day with us as you and your team start preparing for walk #57.
Our next gathering will be held September 20th at Caprock Canyon Park Near Quitaque. If you have never attended a gathering in this most beautiful surrounding my prayer is that you will be able to attend this time under the stars with friends and family of LWE. Invite a guest, they will love you for it.
We will dedicate Women's Walk #56 to the Lord at this gathering. Please be in prayer for Robin Nixon (lay director) and Les Hall (spiritual director) and the team of walk #56 as they prepare for what God has planned for the pilgrims of this walk.
On a happy/sad note, Tim and I will not be present at Caprock Canyon Park. We will be in the mountains of New Mexico with our friends Debbie and Dewitt Crosby for some vacation time. Russell Flick volunteered to officiate over the gathering and will do a super job. Thank You Russell. Our prayers will be there with you all from the mountain tops of New Mexico to the incredible canyons of West Texas.
His creation is so awesome. How honored we are to live in the most beautiful country in the world. Helen Steiner Rice wrote in her book "Inspiration for Living": God is lavish in all that He's done to make this great world such a wonderful one. His mountains are high, His oceans are deep and cast and unmeasured the prairie lands sweep.
In his hands are the depths of the earth, and the mountain peaks belong to Him. Psalm 95:4
Today admire the artistry of God; purple mountain peaks, white capped oceans of blue, golden hued fields of wheat and via Sue J. Caprock Canyon Park.

De Colores!
