Issue # 176

From Your Community Lay Director

Greetings to the Living Water Emmaus Community

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for allowing me this privilege to serve as the community lay director. I am looking forward to seeing our community grow. I believe that Emmaus is still alive and well and, as we all know, it is an extremely powerful tool God uses to bring Christians into a deeper relationship with Him, and to teach His Grace.

I would like to thank Seth Ward Baptist Church for hosting our community meeting in January. Everything was great and the team of Walk 72 was certainly blessed by the dedication service.

We are looking forward to our 2 summer walks this year at Amherst and the opportunity to meet new people there and expand our sphere of influence. I am especially hopeful that we will be able to bring back in some of our members from our western most areas.

I am looking forward to our February 16th meeting at Cotton Center First Baptist Church and hope to see you all there.

DECOLORES.

Russell Flick

Community Gathering
--February 16 --

First Baptist Church
Cotton Center, TX

Board 5:30 PM
Sponsor's Training 6:00 PM
Meal 6:30 PM
Worship 7:30 PM

Guests are welcome and nursery will be provided.
Bring your favorite dishes. Wear your name tag. Bring your worship book. Come to share in the fun and fellowship!
LIVING WATER BOARD : 5:30 PM.
SPONSOR'S TRAINING will be held at 6:00 PM with Elaine Barrett as leader. The Board invites and urges all new community members and others who have never sponsored a pilgrim, and anyone who has not been through a recent training class to participate. The class will last for 30 minutes.
Being a sponsor is one of the most important roles of the Walk To Emmaus. Several areas must be covered in order for the pilgrim to have an exciting and successful walk. Worship begins at 7:30 with praise songs, and closes with communion.

WOW! I would like to start by thanking everyone who had a part in making WALK #72 such a huge success. From the very formation of the team till the last song at closing the Living Water Emmaus community was at the top of their game and it showed. We had a wonderful team, and God used every man to touch those pilgrims in a mighty way. However, there are two groups of people who I believe deserve special recognition. I will not try to name them all, even if I could, it would take too long. These two groups are, of course, those who prayed and those who sponsored. I have long been convinced that the true success behind The Walk to Emmaus is the prayers that are prayed by the entire community, including those that are not on the vigil that started many months ago.

Without sponsors there would be no pilgrims and therefore no walk. So I want to especially thank them for all that they did.

I would also like to thank all of you who made me copies and helped type and change my schedule. I said I would not name anyone but you know who you are. Thanks.

I would also like to thank the clergy team, and their wives for letting me take them away for the weekend. They were great and we needed all of them to get through the weekend.

All of the teams worked great and worked well together. We had great music, great clergy, great table groups, and a great back table. My assistants were great, and the agape team was great. Everyone combined to make this a fantastic Walk. The best one ever, Walk #72. Russell Flick, Lay Director

The Good You Find In Others

The good you find in others, is in you too. The faults you find in others are your faults as well. After all, to recognize something you must know it.

The possibilities you see in others, are possible for you as well.

The beauty you see around you is your beauty.

The world around you is a reflection, A mirror showing you the person you are.

To change your world, you must change yourself.

To blame and complain will only make matters worse.

Whatever you care about, is your responsibility.

What you see in others shows you yourself.

See the best in others, and you will be your best.

Give to others, and you give to yourself.

Appreciate beauty, and you will be beautiful.

Admire creativity, and you will be creative.

Love, and you will be loved.

Seek to understand, and you will be understood.

Listen, and your voice will be heard.

Show your best face to the mirror, And you'll be happy with the face looking back at you.

"But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;" -Matthew 5:44

Pilgrims Needed!

The July and August Walks are in need of Pilgrims!!

Please be in Prayer for God to put the right person in your mind and heart for these walks. I pray that it fills up and there is a waiting list. This is your opportunity to bless someone. There are Community people who would be willing to help you with any sponsoring needs. Just notify Russell or I and we will be glad to pass the word to complete your needs. Thank You in advance for the great work you do in Our Saviors name.
