Community Meeting
FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
Floydada, TEXAS

February, 2017

Issue # 231

Community Lay Director

Hello Living Water Emmaus Community,

We are assured and know that [God being a partner in their labor] all things work together and are [fitting into a plan] for good to and for those who love God and are called according to [His] design and purpose. -Romans 8:28

As I am sitting here thinking about the men that are apart of the walk this February, this verse comes to mind. If we trust in Him imagine all that he will be setting in motion in these lives. The lives of the team members that are sharing & serving. The lives of the sponsors who are praying for these men before, during, and after the walk. The community members who are supporting in any way that God leads them for this Walk #89. And the pilgrims, how exciting to know they have been strengthened to go out and share through their lives the design and purpose he has for them. Doesn't it just make you smile because we all know it is part of His plan! Our main responsibility is to remain attentive to our Father, letting him guide us through the many choices we have. One step, one moment at a time for the good of all who love Him.

Remember you are on the path of God's choosing so do not give up!

Holy Spirit, you are the life of everything good in my world.
Thank you for those bits and pieces of light, those kisses of grace you send my way.

DeColores!
Donna Kay Burnett

Thinking out Loud

Many of us have lost loved ones, friends, co-workers, class mates, sisters, brothers, grand parents, parents, & many more.

My thoughts are when they slip from this world to the blessed side to sit at His right hand, we think of them often and wander of the day we will get to join them. As we are left behind I have come to the realization that we are the ones here to hold our families together and make sure that we stay in contact with each of them and let them know that they are loved and still a part of our family. I say this because experiencing this first hand, I feel like I have moved from a family of many to an only child.

I know this is not a true fact, but the actions of me, my siblings, & my extended family. So remember that even though the glue that held you all together (parents) is no longer among you, you should not forget those whom God gave you as your blood kin.

I write this as my heart is broken and yet I have many wonderful friends I feel as though I'm walking through my life as an only child.

We may not see eye to eye, but face it we are all we have left by the blood that we share.

You can ... change your clothes change your hair change your nose
for all we care

Feel free to ... change your mind
change your heart change your job or change your art

Please ... change your socks
change your oil change your milk
if yours gets spoiled

But ... one thing you can't change, not ever...
WE'RE A FAMILY and that's forever

He who trusts in the Lord will prosper. Proverbs 28:25

Doors are everywhere OPEN THEM.

If you think well of others, you will also speak well of others and to others. From the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. If our heart is full of love, you will speak of love.

Mother Teresa

May He give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed. Psalm 20:4

Whether it's the best of times or the worst of times, it's the ONLY time you've got.....
