When God's Timing is Taking to Long

Psalm 37: 7 "Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him:"

This week a recurring theme for me has been God's timing. We want so much to control what is going on in our lives. Whether it is finances, illnesses, family issues, friendships, desires of our hearts etc. that we don't stop and wait on what God has waiting for us. We don't wait for our Heavenly Father to give us the answers we need and just try to fix it on our own.

Case in point: I was in the shower and praying, as I often do, that as soon as I was finished getting ready, could God lay on my heart what it was that he wanted me to share with the community in this newsletter. I knew it would be about his timing but yet here I was telling him what he was going to do on my time. I busted out loud laughing!!! Really! Can you imagine how amused he was with me! I bet he was laughing right along with me.

God gives us hopes and dreams for certain things to happen in our lives, but He doesn't always allow us to see the exact timing of His plan. Although frustrating, not knowing the exact timing is often what keeps us going. There are times when we might give up if we knew how long it was going to take, but when we accept God's timing, we can learn to live in hope and enjoy our lives while God is working on our problems. We know that God's plan for our lives is good, and when we entrust ourselves to Him, we can experience total peace and happiness.

Donna K Burnett

Death could not hold You, the veil tore before You
You silenced the boast, of sin and grave
The heavens are roaring, the praise of Your glory
For You are raised to life again

You have no rival, You have no equal
Now and forever, God You reign
Yours is the Kingdom, Yours is the glory
Yours is the Name, above all names

What a powerful Name it is
