COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

Welcome pilgrims of Walk 81 to our greater Living Water Emmaus Community. I would have loved to have been able to hear the music on your walk. It seems not only was the music team great but everyone on the walk was a talented singer. It amazes me how each walk is the basically the same but the Holy Spirit takes each walk and creates an environment that draws everyone to a closer walk with God. Special thanks to everyone who let God use them by being a part of Walk 81.

Walk 81 did not stop at the Ark they brought their love and excitement to our monthly community meeting. Our last community meeting was great. I really did not want that meeting to end.

Walk 82 is just around the corner (July 17-20), there are men hurting and feeling there is no hope. I read in Luke 10 where Jesus told us to love our neighbor as ourselves. Jesus was then asked who our neighbors are. He explained about a man who was beat up and left for dead. Two leaders of the church walk right past him after all they had important work to do. But a Samaritan stopped and took care of his needs. God is counting on us to help bring his flock back together. If you need registration papers go to LWE new web page www.livingwateremmaus.org

Mark your calendars for August 21. On this date we will be having our first Living Water Emmaus outdoor concert (Praise in the Park). The concert will be at Hale Center pavilion. Each family is asked to bring a picnic meal and chairs for themselves. We are asking for a donation of $5.00/person for everyone over 18 and children free. The money will be used for LWE expenses.

Through The Storm

I did not know His love before, the way I know it now.
I could not see my need for Him, my pride would not allow.
I had it all, without a care, the "Self-Sufficient" lie.
My path was smooth, my sea was still, not a cloud was in my sky.
I thought I knew His love for me, I thought I'd seen His grace,
I thought I did not need to grow, I thought I'd found my place.
But then the way grew rough and dark, the storm clouds quickly rolled;
The waves began to rock my ship, my anchor would not hold.

The ship that I had built myself, was made of foolish pride.
It fell apart and left me bare, with nowhere else to hide.
I had no strength or faith to face, the trials that lay ahead,
And so I simply prayed to Him, and bowed my weary head.
His loving arms enveloped me, and then He helped me stand.
He said, "You still must face this storm, but I will hold your hand."
So through the dark and lonely night, He guided me through pain.
I could not see the light of day, or when the storm might wane.
Yet through the aches and endless tears, my faith began to grow.
I could not see it at the time, but my light began to glow.
I saw God's love in brand new light, His grace and mercy, too.
For only when all self was gone, could Jesus' love shine through.
It was not easy in the storm, I sometimes wondered, "Why?"
At times I thought, "I can't go on." I'd hurt, and doubt, and cry.
But Jesus never left my side, He guided me each day.
Through pain and strife, through fire and flood, He helped me all the way.

And now I see as never before, how great His love can be.
How in my weakness He is strong, how Jesus cares for me!
He worked it all out for my good, although the way was rough.
He only sent what I could bear, and then He cried, "Enough!"
He raised His hand and said, "Be still!" He made the storm clouds cease.
He opened up the gates of joy, and flooded me with peace.
I see His face now clearer still, I felt His presence strong.
I found anew His faithfulness, He never did me wrong.
Now I know more storms will come, but only for my good.
For pain and tears have helped me grow, As naught else ever could.
I still have so much more to learn, as Jesus works in me;
If in the storm I'll love Him more, that's where I want to be.

“They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.” - Job 21:18
