

Living Water Emmaus

November 2019

I want to share one of the most profound jokes I have ever heard.

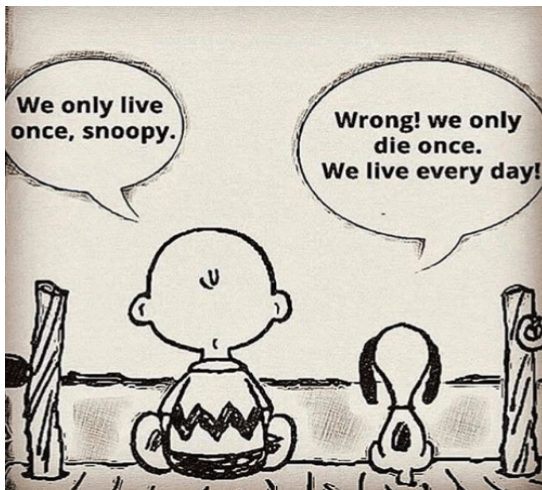

Snoopy and Charlie Brown were sitting outside one night watching the stars when Charlie Brown turned to Snoopy and said " You know Snoopy, you only live once". Snoopy replied "Wrong, you only die once, but you live ever day".

I think it's time for me to adopt that motto. Even when we die, we still live. Thank you Jesus for your sacrifice for us so we may live forever.

This is short and sweet but I have no other words that can add any more value to this letter.

De Colores,

Karen Boyce

Want to Work a Walk?

A common request heard among the community is "I want to work a walk" and rightly so as working a walk is a true blessing. However, there are many ways of working a walk without being on the official team. These are jobs that are necessary for the walk to happen:

- Sponsor a pilgrim
- Bring agape
- Attend send off
- Attend candlelight
- Attend closing
- Be apart of the 72 hour prayer vigil
- Decorate for the banquet
- Sign up to take photos
- Host a team meeting
- Write letters to the pilgrims
- Attend community to dedicate the team
- Attend community to welcome new community members

When you do these things, you are a vital part of the walk and you get to help bless the pilgrims. As an added benefit when you do these items, your involvement within the Living Water Emmaus community is noticed. The team selection committee considers this (among other things) when selecting the team list for future walks.
