

Living Water Emmaus

October 2023

Hello Everyone,

I hope this letter finds you enjoying this wonderful fall weather.

Our world is in such turmoil as I write. If we listen to the news for a couple of minutes, our anxiety level can shoot through the roof! It is so easy to let fear get a grip on us, but we have to fight the urge to give in to the devil's plan to defeat us. I recently read a devotional by Roy Lessin in his book, Meet Me in the Meadow. I hope you find it encouraging.

Fear is a thief ; Faith is a rewarder.

Fear questions and retreats; Faith takes things God has promised and goes forward.

Fear lets the inheritance we have in Christ go unclaimed; Faith takes hold of its possessions.

Fear quivers; Faith fights.

Fear says "later"; Faith says "now".

Fear is defeat; Faith is victory.

Fear says "You will be overcome"; Faith says , "You are an overcomer".

Fear tears you down; Faith raises you up.

Fear says, "how?"; Faith says, " God!"

In these uncertain times we must put our faith in God and focus on all that He has for us.

Israel needs our prayers and as Christians we are called to pray for Israel.

Remember our community meeting is this Thursday at Grace Methodist Church in Plainview. We need to come together and pray for Israel, our country, and each other. Hope to see you there!

DeColores,

Nancy
