

Living Water Emmaus

January 2024

Living Water Emmaus,

LWE Community, I hope each of you had an amazing holiday season. First, giving thanks together with friends and family for Thanksgiving. Second, celebrating the birth of our savior Jesus Christ. It's hard to believe it is time to start another year, but here we are in 2024. Happy New Year!

Let us join to lift Nancy Young for her ability to serve with such a grateful heart and selflessness. I know she will be missed. Thank you, Nancy, for an amazing job in 2023. Nancy, I still consider you to be my boss, so please continue to direct me. It is now my honor and privilege to assume the role of Community Lay Director 2024. I am in awe of what Emmaus has done for me and how the Lord used it to strengthen my personal relationship with Jesus Christ. I am in awe of the body of believers the Lord has connected me with through Emmaus. This family is truly special in my life. My prayer is that it does the same for each of you. I will be the first to admit, I am not qualified for this position, or any position that I have done till this point. However, Christ has called me worthy and my prayer is that I lean on him every step of the way. I look forward to serving this community and seeing what is in store this coming year. I ask the Lord, to allow me to lead as a servant and serve as a leader.

De Colores,
Christopher Rowten
